

Australian Men's Shed Association
SHOULDER TO SHOULDER

Tune into Episode 6 of The Shed Wireless as we continue our journey discovering the development of Men's Sheds around the world, and some other interesting stuff.

This week you'll hear about:

- We head to Ireland to see how Shedders are surviving in that part of the world.
- The wonder of working with wood and how it nearly cost Stuart two of his fingers.
- Rip Woodchip has been cooking and is feeling pretty pleased with himself.
- The legendary Professor John Macdonald – one of the great minds of the shed movement - shares some thoughts.

- And much more...

Hosted by award-winning broadcaster Aaron Kearney and AMSA Boss David Helmers.

Listen and subscribe to The Shed Wireless here: <https://podcasts.apple.com/au/podcast/the-shed-wireless/id1510493380>

Or, if you're not great with tech, here:

<http://mensshed.org/theshedwireless>

Rip's been chippin' in the kitchen

In his own words, Rip's been indulgin' in some good ol' fashioned home cookin' of late.

He reckons there's nothing like a warm soup or stew to tuck into on a cool winter night, with a soggy piece of toast on the side (and, we agree!). He's after some more winter recipe ideas for a Ripper Recipes Winter Collection.

Got a ripper recipe to share? Visit The Shed Online and tell us about your favourite culinary delights!

